THE LATE MURDER OF JOHN SKELL!

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning Coroner Habrerewed the investigation commenced on Monday of the New-York Hospital relative to the death of Joh Skelly, the young man who was fatally shot by Michel Barret', at the porter-house of the latter, corner Barrett, at the perter-house of the latter, corner of Thirteenth street and Avenue B, late on Sunday night, as previously reported in The Transure. The tests mony adduced does not vary materially from the taken on Monday. The prisoner, as appears, kept a quiet house, and bears a good character in the saight borhood where he lives. On the other hand, the decrated was not above suspicion, as he was recently released from prison, where he had been confined one charge of assault and battery made against hum below Justice Wood. The Atlantic Blues, of which Skelly was a member, are considered a hard lot of fellows.

Below will be found a copy of the evidence and the verdict of the Jury, likewise the examination of the prisoner:

verdict of the Jury, likewise the examination of the prisoner:

Philip Garvey, residing at No. 303 East Twelch street, being duly sworn, deposes and says—I was acqualated with the deceased; I was one of the party in the liquor-decense on Sanday night; I believe there were seven or eight of an the party, but I am not certain as to the number; I was in the store about half an hour before the rest came in; they came in quietly, but as soon as they were in the store they space together, making considerable unlike; some of them whind to stay in the place, white others were desirons of leaving; this occasioned the talking; as soon as the party came in, or respondent and the word of the whind the say in the place, white others were desirons of leaving; this occasioned the talking; as soon as the party came in, or respondent and the word of the said come out to where the party were and spoke to them; I cames say what he said to them or whether he was addressing one of all of them; he stood talking perhaps for three or four minutes, he then went either to toe book part of the stere or in the back room; when I next saw him, he was walking toward us with a sun; when he got within severe regist feet from us he pathed the gun toward the party; I was then standing separately from the rest; they were wresting, or had been from the first, and making considerable noise; there were two wrestling and the others seemed to be attempting to get them out of the store, the deceased was standing by a barrel and not the long any part in what the others were doing; when he got with a store and several others, before the party own in what the others were doing; when the got may four his after this, it went out of the store and several others, before the party can in and white I and Hargeeriy were alone with the prisoner, the party went of the store and several others, before the party can in and white I and Hargeeriy were alone with the prisoner, the word them, did; I think the deceased and two of them, did, I think the deceased was a member; I know of no bad feeling existing between the deceased and the prisoner; at this time the deceased all nothing to provoke the prisoner other than by his presence.

Patrick Haggerty residing at No. 230 Avenue B, being duly swom deposes and says—I knew the deceased; a sunday night, about twenty minutes past 10 o'clock I west into Michael Barretty's grogadup, in company with Garvey there were only three in the place that they were going they replied that they were going to where they were going they replied that they were going to have a drink, when the prisoner said "You will set man here," one of them. (Brady) said, "I have money to pit it?" he soon took some money from his pocket; Rorr and myself commenced foeding and skylaring; mixings, describely were going to get no drink; the next I heard was an attempt to put Kerr out; I also assisted to this; this situation the part of O'Kee's to put Kerr out was I thought become they were going to get no drink; the next I heard was prisoner saying in an excited manner. "Go out," "go out," for three times; on hearing this I turned around, was I as the prisoner having a gun in his hand, pointing it toward the creased it is soon fell on the floor; I stood a minute or two siles of the there; there is no deceased; at the same time he fined the gun, elsooting the creased it is soon fell on the floor; I stood a minute or two flow of the there; there fire here were all months of the company called the "Atlantic Blues;" I had turned out when one coursion twice; Dan Braly was also under the one of liquor; the others did not repeat to be.

Catharine Barrett, reriting at No. 280 Avenue B, being duly sworn deposes and says—On the night of the currence I was in an adjoining room; I was assumed by noise, and I then heard my father (the prisoner) say, "Go sed, or "Go back," and very soon, about three was considered by the prisoner seemed to be a man not adapted to bis kind of heard the prisoner seemed to be a man not adapted to be suf
